

Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC
Announces Investigation of PrePaid Calling Card Industry for Alleged Deceptive Practices

CINCINNATI, October 20, 2008 – Attorney Advertising

The class action law firm of Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC announces it is investigating allegations of deceptive practices in the PrePaid Calling Card Industry, including but not limited to alleged practices of CVT Prepaid Solutions, Inc.; Dollar Phone Services, Inc.; Dollar Phone Enterprises, Inc.; Dollar Phone Corp.; Dollar Phone Access, Inc.; Epana Networks, Inc.; Locus Telecommunications, Inc.; STi Phoncard, Inc.; Telco Group, Inc.; VOIP Enterprises, Inc.; Find & Focus Abilities, Inc.; and Total Call International, Inc. The alleged deceptive practices relate to:

- connection fees on calls that don't go through or are unanswered;
- post-call service fees and 99-cent hang-up fees;
- calling rates that are higher than represented;
- activity and weekly maintenance fees;
- charges in increments of up to four-minutes or longer for calls that took only seconds of actual calling time.

This investigation follows actions by the Federal Trade Commission and attorneys general of several states to crack down on such alleged activities.

If you have purchased a prepaid calling card and have information regarding these allegations and/or practices and wish to discuss this investigation, contact W. Kelly Lundrigan, Esq. at (888) 876-7881 or by e-mail at klundrigan@statmanharris.com for further information without any obligation or cost to you.
